Welcome to Hollywood Comes To Distance Learning and the Hollywood ESL Classroom from the Publisher's of Rock Talk.

Students love movies, and now we have a way to use movies to reinforce grammar concepts, spark conversation, and enhance reading and vocabulary skills. With such characters as Mel Gibson, Jim Carrey, Meryl Streep, Sean Penn, students get to laugh while being instructed using the content of popular films.

Each Hollywood Classroom package contains two commercial DVDs plus CD-ROM with reproducible lesson plans. Each film has three completely separate sets of lesson plans, one for Beginning High-Intermediate Low, one for Intermediate/Intermediate High and one for Advanced.

What a great way to teach everything from verb "to be" all the way through Present Progressive. Welcome to The Hollywood Classroom.

Each level's print support consists of:

1. A short written summary of the film.
2. A vocabulary based on usage in the film.
3. A comprehension check.
4. Written exercises focused on specific grammar/usage points at levels using the film as context: For example, Level 1 has 24 separate exercises each addressing a distinct grammar point.
5. Test.
