- ▶ 12 half-hour lessons
- ▶ Six Hours of unrepeated lessons.
- ▶ Each of the twelve lessons consist of seven segments. Each segment is approximately five minutes long.
- ▶ Mimes introduce the theme topic and basic vocabulary aided by Voice-Over.
- ▶ The Artist draws objects while the Voice-Over provides vocabulary.
- ▶ The Skit involves conversation which gives the student an opportunity to comprehend words in context.
- ▶ The Lesson provides content information. Subjects such as science, health, and geography are taught.
- ▶ Assuming many students are familiar with concepts, but need the English equivalents for numbers and fractions, the Math Lesson uses a variety of visual aids to review counting, adding, multiplying, percentage, time, etc. Students are encouraged to respond orally.
- ▶ The Field Trip destinations are as varied as a library, a wildlife center, the Nation's Capitol, and a yard sale.
- ▶ We end each lesson with Sing-Along, where each of twelve traditional American songs is presented in a different musical style. Students are encouraged to sing along.
